

CLAYBROOK

WALK

ABOUT THE DEVELOPMENT

A STYLISH OASIS

Claybrook Walk introduces nine boutique, four-bedroom mews homes. With robust brickwork paired with generous landscaping, the exteriors will present an earthy, material-rich aesthetic. Internally, finishes will be of a natural, soft-toned palette, complemented by exposed textures and raw-material accents. Every home is designed to include its own private garden, front and rear balconies and off-street parking. These homes are ideal for young families and creative professionals who value both comfort and design integrity. This is a future-focused community crafted for modern living in a creative, lively neighbourhood.

“A COLLECTION OF NINE CONTEMPORARY MEWS HOUSES BLENDING WARM BRICK FAÇADES WITH LUSH, LANDSCAPED SURROUNDINGS - COMING SOON TO THE VIBRANT HEART OF DEPTFORD.”

LIVING IN A CREATIVE
NEIGHBOURHOOD.

ABOUT THE AREA

HISTORIC SETTING WITH A BUZZING SCENE

Deptford is a dynamic, culturally diverse community. A creative hub favoured by young families, artists and entrepreneurs. Once a historic naval dockyard, it now boasts a mosaic of makers, cafés, galleries and independent businesses. Its strong sense of local camaraderie and innovation is attracting both long-time residents and new arrivals seeking authenticity over hype.

“ONCE A HISTORIC NAVAL DOCKYARD, IT NOW BOASTS A MOSAIC OF MAKERS, CAFÉS, GALLERIES AND INDEPENDENT BUSINESSES.”

Claybrook Walk represents a truly future-facing mews development in Deptford - a neighbourhood where a rich history meets creative, modern energy. With its gardens, balconies, parking and tactile finishes, the development offers grounded, elegant living in a location defined by community, culture and growth.

GREEN SPACES & PLACES

A LEAFY BACKDROP

Deptford offers surprising pockets of nature and recreation:

- Greenwich Park is a historic former hunting estate and one of the largest single green spaces in south-east London. It notably plays host to The Royal Observatory.
- Brookmill Park & Nature Reserve is a slice of wilderness alongside the Ravensbourne river, with ponds, woodlands and a small rose garden.
- Fordham Park is a local green expanse with established play areas for youngsters to enjoy.

CAFÉ CULTURE

YOUR MORNING FIX

The local café scene is relaxed, creative and community-driven:

- Lomond Coffee at Deptford Market Yard: artisan beans roasted in-house by their all-female team, perfect for a long brunch or a quick stop -in.
- The Coffee Room features locally-produced coffee, offering a vibrant place to meet for breakfast, brunch, lunch and even an early dinner.
- Elsewhere is a local 'roastery' with an adjoining coffee bar. Located near the station its a true community hub and artisanal coffee at its finest.

RESTAURANTS

LONDON'S HOTTEST FOOD SCENE

Deptford's dining reflects its global, grassroots ethos:

- Marcella on Deptford High Street celebrates simple, delicious food and drink, focusing on the best seasonal Italian and British produce and a strictly all Italian wine list.
- Buster Mantis is a Jamaican bar and kitchen beneath railway arches, serving fiery jerk chicken and cocktails with a creative, fine-dining edge.
- The Waiting Room is a vegan-friendly, quirky venue with bagels, burger milkshakes and loaded fries.

PUBS & BARS

WELL SERVED

A blend of laid-back watering holes and atmospheric venues:

- The Dog & Bell is a favourite with locals and critics alike, offering real ales, live music, and a vibrant atmosphere.
- Little Nan's Bar is a proudly kitsch cocktail bar complete with chintzy décor and tea-cup servings, housed underneath the railway arches.
- Badger Badger offers Japanese-inspired street food, local beers, board games, events and DJ nights. A local favourite.
